MAINATTRACTIONS

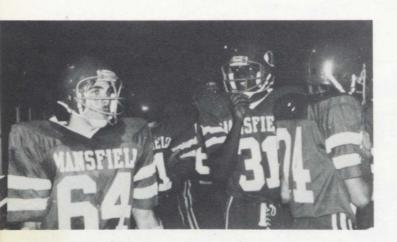

The Tygers, under new head coach Harold Dean, placed another 5-5 season into the record books.

The Tygers opened the season with a shut out victory over Cleveland East Tech. They then fell to crosstown rivals, Madison 19-29, and Malabar 19-27, despite their comeback efforts.

The Tygers then dropped their first away game to Canton Glenn Oak by the score of 14-42. One week later, Royalty was in the air, and the Tygers gave Homecoming queen Kim Back a victory over Cleveland Collinwood 7-6.

The Zanesville loss was one of coach Dean's players' most physical and mental losses to the team. This loss put the Tygers record at 2-4; they needed four more victories to better last season's record. Then only three. Losing to Football powerhouse Massilon 40-9 put them in a losing season 4-5, but by the foot of senior Jim Bishop, the Tygers beat Ashland 20-19 to repeat the 81 season.

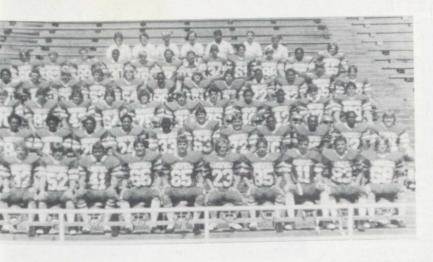

Tyger Awards went to Dennis Franklin, Jimo Adams award; Jim Bishop, Offensive back; Chris Elswick, Offensive line; Pete Webb, Defensive line; Brett Andrews, Defensive back; and Kevin Elkins, Coaches Award.

Juniors Present "We've Only Just Begun"

The Junior class chose "We've Only Just Begun" for this year's Homecoming theme. Kim Back, escorted by Kerry Nicholson, was crowned by Donna Starcher, the queen of 1980.

Kim's court consisted of: Timberly Blaising, escorted by Craig Leedom; Angie Gardner, escorted by John Parker; Lisa Lanning, escorted by Keith Yarman; and Michelle Owens, escorted by Edgar Dominguez.

Speeches were given by Darren Jackson, Junior Class President; Football captain, Troy Conroy, and Coach Dean. Gloria Williams and Jeff Croghan served as Mistress and Master of Ceremonies. Jim Bishop, Troy Conroy, Chris Elswick, Mark Tufts, and Terrance Witcher presented the game ball to Queen Kim.

Reserves Have Winning Season

The Reserve Volleyball team had the first winning season of any volleyball team at Senior High. With a record of 16 wins and 4 losses, the team scored the most points and won more games and matches than any volley team in previous years. The team's coach, Mr. Wayne Au, stated, "All players played an important role whether they started or were substitutes."

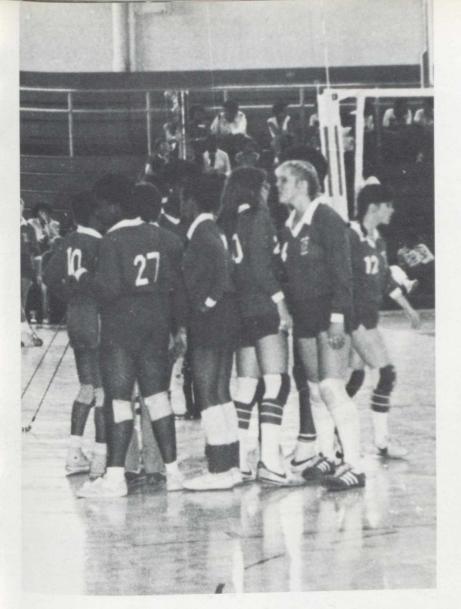

The varsity team, coached by Kathy Reed, a teacher at John Simpson Middle School, finished the season with a record of 2 wins and 19 losses. One of the highlight games of the season was the assembly game against Madison when the Tygers won two of three matches.

Phyllis Parker and Jody Pollman were named the leading scorers, and Jackie Marchell was named leading spiker for the Reserve team. The Varsity awards went to Cindy Shafer, most valuable player; Sherry Smallstey, most points; and Toi Hatch, most improved.

Golfers Have Disappointment

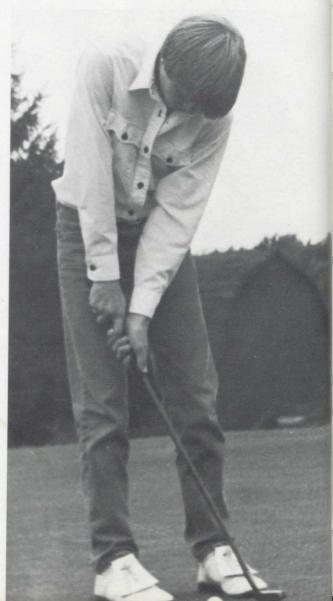

The 1981 Tyger Golf team had a discouraging season, ending with an 0-12 record. They finished 6th in the Mansfield Tournament, 8th in the Buckeye conference, and 11th in the sectionals, beating Tiffin Columbian.

This year's Varsity Varieties had two evenings of entertainment, sponsored by the Senior Class. The event took place in the auditorium on Nov. 12 and 13. The theme chosen was "WMHS TV Channel 82." It was a take-off on a day of television programming and included 7 comedy skits and 8 musical acts. During the intermission, Percy Hall and the Senior High lazz Band performed.

Directing the production was Tony Yetzer, with assistant director Debbi Anderson and producer Scott Thompson. (Class advisors Mary Margret Moore and Dave Gross worked with the production.) Business managers were Debby Yohman and Scott Kochheiser, while Todd Grogg worked as stage manager.

The girls' tennis team completed their season with a respectable 7-10 record. Their most impressive wins came over Clear Fork and Marion Pleasant. They defeated both teams twice. Receiving the award for most points was the doubles team of Lora Kulka and Timberly Blaising. Most improved was Lynn Kochheiser.

Reserves Gain Experience

The reserves opened the season with a victory over Wooster. The Tygers suffered their lone loss to Canton Timken. The following week. Next the Reserves two big games by scores of 29-6 over Clear Fork, and 28-6 over Medina Bucke. The Zanesville Blue Devills were shutout by the Tygers 19-0. Madison suffered a close defeat at the hands of the Reserves. The Tygers beat Lexington 12-7, and Ashland to finish their fine 7-1 record. The Tygers Reserves were coached by first year Reserve coach John Miefert.

Freshmen Have Good Season

The Freshman Football squad began its season with a victory over Lexington, but were shut out by Ashland. Thad Rosenberger scored a safety in the 8-0 shutout of Madison North. Next, after a two week break, the Frosh defeated Malabar 28-19. The Tygers ended their 3-2 season in defeat to Massillon Longfellow Junior High.

The quarterbacking chores were shared by Brett Gilbert and Ron Parr. The captains were Thad Rosenberger and Ron Parr, and the leading scorer was Robbie Andrews. The Freshmen were coached by first year coaches, Head Coach Scott Gordon and Asst. Coach Robert Hood.

Mysterious "Playroom"

Excitement, thrill, and action take place in "The Playroom," a contemporary Thriller presented by the Mansfield Senior Drama Department.

The star-studded cast included such greats as Mike Maxwell, Becky Lewis, Ken Sharp, Mike Marks, Rhonda Sylvester, Kathy Croghan, Katrina Raitch, Steve Selby, Dan Adams, Eric Bullock, Maureena Vollmer, and Veronica Davis.

There were three evening performances on January 28, 29, 30, and a matinee was presented January 27.

Sectional Champs

The Tygers, led by third year coach, Joe Prats, captured the Sectional Championship with a victory over Tiffin Columbian, 81-61. The Tygers were plagued by many close losses, including the City Championship game, the first such loss in six years.

Delarcy "Muffin" Black, who led the team in rebounds, assists and steals, was named first team All-District. Muffin's 19.8 points per game was the highest in recent history.

Bobby Taylor, a junior starter, was the team's best percentage shooter. Bobby had a 16.0 ppg and received All-District honors, also.

The MVP on this year's 7-16 team was Muffin Black. Most Improved was John Parker.

Darson Advances to State

The Tyger wrestling team had an enjoyable season, outscoring Mansfield Madison in both the reserve and varsity matches in a home dual meet.

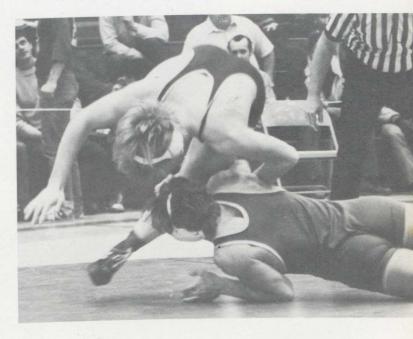

The Tyger reserve team was team champions at the Clear Fork Invitational, at Bellville, placing nine out of thirteen wrestlers.

Six Tygers placed at our 22nd Annual J.C. Gorman Tournament. Out of the six, three earned championships: Bill Benjamin (98 lb.), Gary Divelbiss (119), and Paul Darson (126). Gary was voted Most Valuable Performer at J.C. Gorman.

Then Tygers placed four wrestlers in the finals of the MSH Sectionals. Mike Longood (98), Gary Divelbiss (119), Paul Darson (126), and Brett Andrews (145) all advanced to the Toledo Rogers Districts.

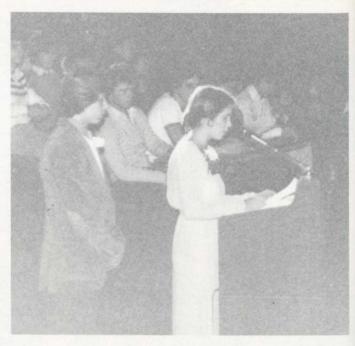

At Toledo, Paul was the only Tyger to advance to the finals and therefore earn a berth in the OSU State Tournament.

In Ohio State's Saint John's Arena, Darson finished fourth in the state in the 126 pound weight class.

On January 8th and 9th the 22nd annual J.C. Gorman Wrestling Tournament was held at Mansfield Senior High in Pete Henry gym.

Jackie Jones, former 1981 J.C. Gorman Queen, returned to an assembly held on Friday, Jan. 8th, to crown Krystal Owens, 1982 J.C. Gorman Queen. Miss Owens' escort was Mr. Willie Crittenden.

The queen's court included Miss Alphy Collins, escorted by Mr. Doug Mosier; Miss Laurita Evans, escorted by Mr. Paul Burghard; Miss Donna Carney, escorted by Mr. Melvin Smith; and Miss Patti McCambridge, escorted by Mr. Troy Conroy.

M.C.'s for this year's assembly were Miss Cathy Offmiss and Mr. Steve Selby. Special speakers of the assembly were Mr. Paul Darson, a senior wrestler; Mr. William Flannegan, former wrestling coach; and Mr. Clarence Jacocks, Wrestling coach.

Appropriate music was provided by the Jazz band under the direction of Mr. Percy Hall.

Lady Cagers Have Good Season

This year's girls' basketball team accumulated ten victories and eleven losses. There were two highlights of the season, a win over Lexington by a point in overtime and beating Sandusky in triple overtime during the Sectionals.

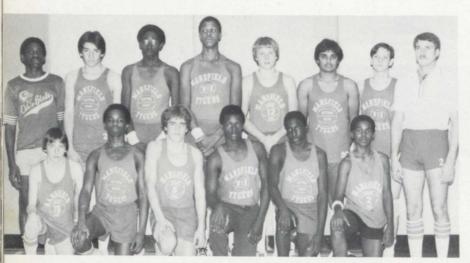

There were five returning letterwinners: Laura Parker, Becky Bauhs, Carla Norris, Jeanetta Lamb, and Gay Holmes. They were helped out by sophomores Julie Schroeder, Stephine Crawford, and Toi Hatch. The varsity squad was coached by John Miefert.

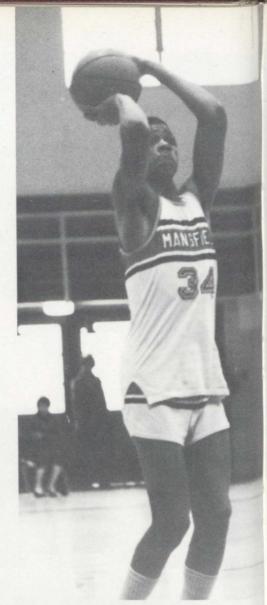

Named as MVP at the sports banquet was Carla Norris. Carla also won awards for having the most rebounds, most assists, and highest free throw percentage. Jeanetta Lamb was awarded for the best field goal percentage. Captains were Carla Norris and Jeanetta Lamb.

The reserves were coached by Rena Gibbs. They finished with a fourteen and five record.

Tyger J.V.'s Have Winning Season!

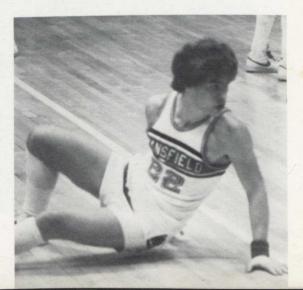

The 1981-82 Tyger J.V.
Basketball team finished with a winning season, 13-7. The losses that were handed to Tygers were close ones. One of the finest games was when they met cross town rival, Malabar. The Tygers beat the Falcons in overtime.

Coach Neumann was pleased with the team, because they showed determination and pride in what they were doing.

The MHS freshman basketball team finished their season, 6-8. Tyrone Buck, Ron Parr and Andre Feagin teamed up to ignite the freshman offensive effort most of this season.

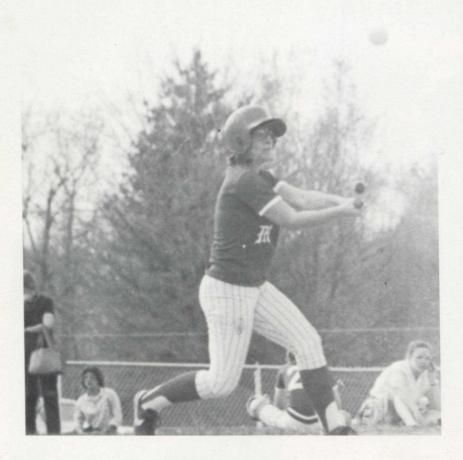

Tygers Crush Malabar for City Championship

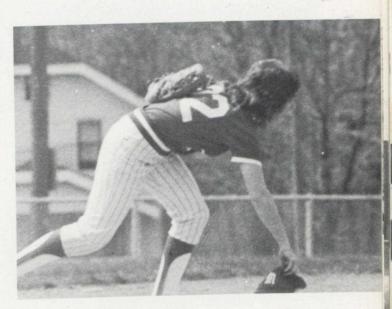

This year's team was composed of just twelve players. The Tygers saw only five varsity players return with three reserves coming up along with four rookies.

Becky Bauhs had almost all the pitching cast upon her as the only experienced varsity pitcher. Luann Krichbaum and Mamie Ramsay, sophomores, came in relief of Becky as needed; when not, they played at third base and first base, respectively. On the receiving end of the pitches was, usually, junior catcher Sherry Smallstey.

The keystone was handled by veterans Cathy Bishop, a junior second baseman, and senior Laura Parker, at shortstop. The outfield duties were handled by starters, junior Cynthia Etzel in left, freshman Jody Pollman in center, and senior Margie Hriesik in right. Sophomores Ann Kracker and Raquel Bernat also played in the outfield. Freshman Susan Bottorf DH'ed for Jody and played in the outfield.

Senior Chris Elswick, the team's elected MVP, led the team in hits (25), batting average (.424), and slugging percentage. Elswick pitched a rare no-hitter against Ontario. Elswick has played every position on the field except shortstop and, along with senior Mark Constance, played in every game.

Senior Troy Conroy was the best pitcher on a mainly rookie pitching staff. Conroy, in his second year, led the team in complete games and had the lowest ERA on the team. Conroy, mostly because of constant hard luck defense, ended up 0-8. Sophomore Billy Stevens pitched his first game in years and did well. Sophomore Ted Mayo led the team in wins.

Senior Jeff Gregory was the most improved. Jim Bishop was named by his teammates as Team Captain.

Tyger Tracksters Show Much Talent

This year for the first time the boys' and girls' track teams merged. Instead of competing in different meets on different days, they participated together.

The boys were coached by Fred Atwater; who had an impressive cast of freshmen and returning lettermen. Donnie and Ronnie Eatmon, along with Vernon Hairston and Earl Taylor, comprised the relay team. Ken Smith was a distance man, while Mike Middleton controlled field events.

Rena Gibbs coached the girls team and will have much of her squad returning. All-State perfomers Angie Gardner and Brenda Barrett ran relays, hurdles, and sprints, and were joined by Carla Hairston and Patti Givand in relays. Jeanetta Lamb and Gay Holmes did field events, while Linda DeVine and Beth Staples ran distance medleys.

The 1982 tennis team finished the season with a 4-14 record. The awards went to Mark Brumm, most valuable; Scott Kochheiser, team captain; and Paul Smith, most improved. Fourth year varsity awards went to Brumm and Kochheiser as well. The team was coached by Mr. Jim Goode, who announced that this was his last year as tennis coach.

Drama Club Presents One Acts

The Drama club presented its final production of the year with Spring Follies on April 1, 2, and 3. There were six one-act plays, five which were student directed, and one by William Asher.

"The Jinx from Alabama" was directed by Mr. Asher. This one act play was about a girl from Alabama who is very superstitious and finds many bad omens surrounding her cousin's wedding.

"The Doctor in Spite of Himself" was directed by Ken Sharp. In this play the "doctor" is forced into his profession through a betting of his vengeful life.

"Let's Get Out of Here" was directed by Ed Weidle. This play was about two young people who believe running away from reality will change their life.

"Mind Set" was directed by Steve Selby. It was a fantasy about a young girl's mind and expressive symbolism through unusual actions.

"Never Trust a Man" was directed by Debbi Anderson. Staged in the early 40's, this one act touches on the humorous mistaken engagement.

The last play, "When God
Comes to Breakfast, You Don't Burn the Toast," was directed by Mike Marks. This one act deals with the unusually funny dilemma of what to have for breakfast when God comes over.

Seniors Awarded Class Day Honors

The Class of '83 moved into position as Darren Jackson accepted the gavel from Kevin Elkins at the conclusion of Class Day. Before that, however, many seniors were recognized for their achievements. After marching into the auditorium, the top ten percent of the class were given gold cords and tassels.

Named by the University Club

as outstanding seniors were Patti McCambridge and Dan Adams. Runners-up were Kevin Elkins, Scott Kochheiser, Jeff Steele, Leo Lawhorn, Debby Yohman, Kim Sholaya, Katrina Raitch, and Jocelyn Scott. Cindy Shafer was named outstanding girl by the AAUW. Principal's Awards went to John Harsch, Bobbi Williams, Kevin Elkins, Debby Yohman, and Karl Schroeder.

Mr. Gross and Mrs. Moore recognized the class officers and forty other seniros for their outstanding participation in class activities. A highlight of the program came when the class officers and advisors presented the class gift, a large Tyger mat for the main lobby. It arrived during the program, just in time to be presented.

It finally came, the Prom! Mohican Lodge was the site for the 1982 prom, where seniors enjoyed a fine buffet dinner following 4 hours of non-stop jam from WGCL's Uncle Vic. Kevin Elkins and Debbie Yohman were named king and queen. This year's seniors enjoyed their "Best of Times" by moving on to the Cinema World where they viewed "Porky's and "Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid." After the flicks, they moved on to Park Lanes for all night bowling. These were "The Best of Times."

Rain Forces Graduates to Pete Henry Gym

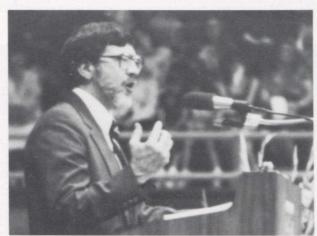

Because of rain, the class of '82 held its Commencement and Baccalaureate exercises at Pete Henry Gym, instead of Arlin Field, on May 29th.

Rev. A.W. Schroeder, Father of class treasurer Kark, gave the Invocation, Scripture reading and Benediction. Kevin Elkins, president, gave the welcoming speech. Dan Adams, Valedictorian, and Ken Smith, Salutatorian, gave the class something to think about in their speeches.

The class of 82, the first four year class in eighteen years, proudly left Pete Henry Gym to the sound of the Mansfield Senior Varsity Band.

National Champs

The varsity cheerleading squad, led by senior captain Georgia Norris, swept 1st place in three competitions. The squad captured the USCA National Championship, a local competition, and a major competition in Columbus. Georgia Norris took first place in individual competition at the USCA Nationals. The team went to Michigan for the Grand Nationals, where they placed in the upper third in the country, receiving a Grand National Top Forty plaque.

The reserve squad performed in Varsity Varieties, Ruby Wilkes was the varsity and reserve advisor. Loretta McBride was the

The Hi-Steppers hosted the state drill team pageant during the year. Kay Sanders was their advisor. The squad also made a trip to Los Angeles in February where they participated in the Miss Drill Team USA competition. Kim Sanders and Carla See took individual honors.

The MHS Pep Club presented many pep rallies during the year. Scott Kutz was the advisor for the year. Hanna Bolte served as host of the pep rallies and as president of Pep Club. Other Pep Club officers were: Sally Schrader, Vice-President; Claudia Molson, Secretary; and Rose Feagin, Treasurer.

The German Club, under the direction of Mr. Nephew, sponsored candy sales and two banquets. Officers were Barry Kuenkele, president; Steve Taylor, vicepresident; Paul Smith, treasurer; and Tammy Wiseman, secretary.

Tammy Wiseman, secretary.
The Black Culture Club sponsored four dances, a movie, bake sales, and Thanksgiving food baskets. Their leaders were Krystal Owens, president; Gloria Williams, vice-president; Angela Tynch, secretary; Mary Nall, treasurer; and Mr. Pugh, advisor.

National Honor Society officers were Kevin Elkins, president; Karl Schroeder, vice-president; Jocelyn Scott, secretary, and Karen Metz, treasurer. Also under Mr. Pugh, they held tutoring programs, and sponsored the student-faculty basketball game.

The Red Cross held two bloodmobiles, a CPR course, and a fruit drive. Kevin Forster was president; Steve Dollish, vice-president; Cindy Rose secretary; and Todd Hudson treasurer.

Active Clubs

Key Club officers were Troy Conroy, president; Ben Rachel, vice-president; Karl Schroeder, treasurer, Robert Maxwell, secretary; and Dave Gross, advisor. They ran a booth at the North Lake Park Festival, participated in Varsity Varieties, and attended Kiwanis meetings.

The Academic Challenge team consisted of Jerry Fliger, captain, Jeff Croghan, Kevin Foster, and Missi Miller (alternate), with Miss Papenhausen as advisor. They competed against Conneaut and Orange High School on October 14, coming in third.

Office Groups Work Hard

The DE club, under the advisement of Mr. Davis, attended a Fall Delegates Conference in Columbus, a Leadership Conference at Richland Mall, and held a banquet for their employers at SanDar. Officers were Becky Rose, president; Teresa Leech, vicepresident; Barb Taylor, secretary; and Stephanie Copley, treasurer. The IOS club was headed by Pam Conners, president; Tammy King, vice-president; Angie Rayburn, treasurer; and Beth Staples, secretary. They took field trips to Shelby Mutual and NCTC, held Christmas and Valentines parties, and enjoyed three special lunches at area restaurants. Mrs. Harwood is the advisor.

The COE club, advised by Mr. Neuerman, sold jerseys, key chains, and candy to earn money for trips to Randall Mall and Beachwood Mall with several breakfasts, brunches, and luncheons during the year. They also toured Shelby Mutual Insurance Company. Officers were President Alphy Collins, Vice-President Cathy Clay, Secretary Gloria Davis, and Treasurer Darnita Luttrell.

Mr. Groff and the COE club also sold jerseys, key chains, and candy to earn money for their special events. They visited Kemper Insurance, Gorman-Rupp, United Telephone, and Shelby Mutual, topping off their year at the Red Lobster. Officers were Lawanda Curry, president; Patti McCambridge, vice-president; Jocelyn Scott, secretary; and Shellie McClure, treasurer.

The DCT club, advised by Mr. Brown, held a Christmas fund raiser and canoe trip on the spring. They hung banners and flags as part of the state wide Vocational Week. Officers were Melanie Ash, president; Marsha Wilson, vice-president; Tonya Sapp, secretary; and Debbie Arbutina, treasurer.

Organizations Stimulate Student Interest

This year the Manhigan Staff took charge of both editorial and business staff responsibilities. Books were sold and ads collected early in the year, with the rest of the time devoted to planning pages. Heading the staff were Troy Conroy and Mark Brumm, co-editors, and Mr. Gross, advisor. Mark Brumm and Mark Constance were the main photographers, with Kris Lutz, Steve Hardin, and Sean Ragsdale getting practice for next year.

Leo Lawhorn served as editor-in-chief of the Hyphonerian. Other positions were assistant editor, Debbi Anderson; news editors, Ed Weidle and Mary Quinn; managing editor, Robyn Collins; sports editor, Mike Marks; cartoonist and contributing reporter, Dan Adams. Under Mrs. Kohutek's direction, the staff produced seven regular issues, the senior issue, and a special Christmas Fun Book.

Officers of the Drama Club were President Ed Weidle, Vice-President Debbi Anderson, Treasurer Jerry Fliger, Secretary Anne Bernhardt, Historian Kris Lutz, and Thespian Officer Tony Yetzer. Advised by Mr. Asher, the group is in charge of organizing and presenting the drama productions during the year.

The Chess Club is an informal group that meets during a lunch and after school to play chess and further their knowledge of the game.

Mr. Lutz's OWE club was headed by Tom Bargo, president; Ed Hoskinson, vice-president; and Lisa Leadingham, secretary. Other OWE and OWA groups were under the direction of Mr. Atwater, Mr. Linn and Mr. Stallard.

The Auto VICA was advised by Mr. Ammons and Mr. Olivieri. They took a field trip to Dayton Air Force base with money earned from sales. Officers were President Jeff Ball, Vice-President Sam Marvicsin, Secretary Donna Carney, and Treasurer Mark Miller.

Mr. Cook advised the Machine VICA. His officers were President Larry Dean, Vice-President August Salyers, Secretary Mike Miller, and Treasurer Todd Hudson.

Electronics VICA took field trips to Madison Electricity Lab, NCTC's electronics lab, and toured the campus of Mansfield OSU and NCTC. Officers were Jeff Porch, president; Phil Eder, vice-president; Bob Wingler, secretary; Karl Lamp, treasurer; and John Jung, sergeant-at-arms. The group is advised by Mr. Smith.

Students Help In Offices

This year, like the others, students volunteered their assistance to various offices. Monitors worked in the Administation Office, Mr. Black's second floor office, the Attendance Office, and the Counselor's Office. They performed various tasks, such as running hall passes, delivering information, etc.

Mr. Sauder was assisted in the bookstore by a pair of students. Students helped out, in the library by putting books back on the shelves. The Adult Vocational Office also received help in its first year of existence.

Classes Have Productive Year

The Senior Class, led by Kevin Elkins, president; Scott Kochheiser, vice-president; Patti McCambridge, secretary; and Karl Schroeder, treasurer, put on one of the most successful Varsity Varieties in some years. Advised by Mr. Gross and Mrs. Moore, the class also brought in good profits on the annual orange sale, ensuring a beautiful and relatively inexpensive prom.

The Junior Class sponsored a very lovely Homecoming assembly and dance. Their money making projects included a pizza and sub sale and a very profitable memo board sale. Advised by Mr. Goode, the officers were Darren Jackson, president; Anne Earley, vice-president; Mari Porterfield, secretary; and Sue Cline, treasurer.

A poster sale, light bulb sale, car washes, and dances were major projects for the sophomores. Heading the class were Eric Groff, president; Sue Wharton, vice-president; Anne Bernhardt, secretary; Lynn Kochheiser, treasurer; and Mrs. Kohutek and Mr. Mudra, advisors.

The Freshmen Class was advised by Mr. Cahill. Officers were Andrew Gardner, president; Lora Kindade, vice-president; Duana Evans, secretary; and Joyce Henrick, treasurer. They held a candy sale and a roller skating party at the end of the year.

Student Government, advised by Mrs. Mudra, ran all elections, and sponsored exchange days, Christmas food baskets, a computer match, and the annual J. C. Gorman assembly. Officers were Lynnn Kochheiser, vice-president; Raquel Bernat, secretary; and Jeff Croghan, treasurer.

Choirs Awarded State Honors

The Manfield Senior High Choirs, under the direction of Michele Shafer built a most respected name through hard work and determination. After offering a spectacular Christmas program, they prepared for solo and ensemble contests. Participating were twenty-nine soloists and seven ensemblies. The Choir earned straight ones in district contest and again at state contest. They were invited to attend the Ohio State Choral Festival in April as a result of their superior performances. The year concluded with a combined concert held at Malabar on May 17.

Choir officers were Richard Bazley, Rhonda Sylvester, Jamie Hilliard, and Ann Howard.

The orchestra, under the direction of Percy Hall and his assistant Cheryl Collins, played for the Homecoming assembly, at Class Day, and presented the lovely Christmas concert along with the various choirs.

Tyger Band Outstanding

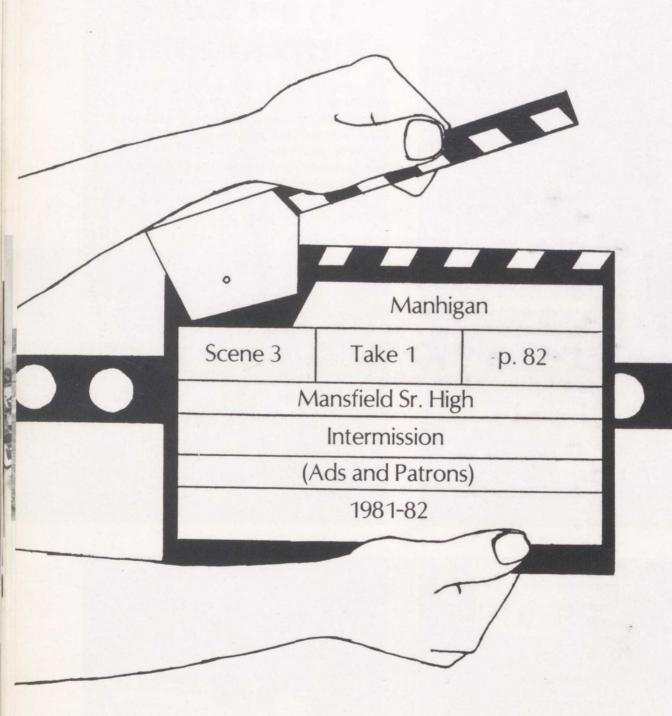

The Tyger marching band was very entertaining this year. Besides thrilling the fans at halftime shows, they marched in several parades. When the marching season was over, the band was split into the symphonic and concert bands. The Jazz band and pep band jammed throughout the year. Officers for this year's band were: President, Dan Adams; Vice President, Rob Pittman; Treasurer, Brian Phillips; and Secretary, Laura Parker.
